This is the tire that grips the ice that grips the snow that grips the mud that grips the road you're about to slide off of.

Get down and dirty in the hardcore, "wheel to wheel" action of Rallycross and Ice Racing. Soar to the clouds in a Hill Climb or slide your way to glory in traditional Rally stages. Tear up 48 tracks in four different Rally event types. Choose from 29 vehicles to drive and smash into, including outlawed Group "B" cars like the Audi Quattro S1 and the MG Metro 6R4. And humiliate up to three other players at a time in multiplayer mode.

RALLISPORT CHALLENGE

Where the rubber leaves the road.

Bridging the Generations

Okay, so communicating with your elders at home everyday can be a challenge. But you'd be surprised at how easy it is to lend a helping hand at your local retirement community or senior center—places populated with people who are usually older than anyone in your household. Volunteering your time to the elderly can be mutually beneficial: The seniors will appreciate your help and enjoy your youthful energy, while you can learn interesting personal histories and gain an appreciation for life.

The ESRB Ratings Guide

The interactive electronic entertainment industry utilizes a voluntary rating system developed by an independent organization—the Entertainment Software Rating Board (ESRB)—so consumers know what to expect before buying a video or PC game. The following is a quick key to the most common ratings; for a complete description, check out the ESRB's Web site at www.esrb.org or call 800/771-3772 for more information.

Titles rated Everyone (E) have content suitable for persons ages six and older. These titles will appeal to people of many ages and tastes. They may contain minimal violence, comic mischief, or crude language. Older games feature the retired Kids-to-Adults rating icon, which is equivalent to today's rating, Everyone.

Games rated Teen (T) are suitable for ages 13 and up. These games could have violent content, strong language, and/or suggestive themes.

Games rated Mature (M) are appropriate for older gamers, generally 17 and up. Mature-rated games may contain more intense depictions of violence, stronger language, and, on rare occasions, sexual themes.

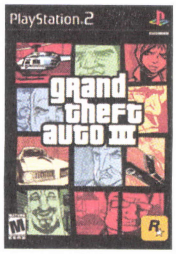
Titles rated Adults Only (AO) have content suitable only for adults. These products may include graphic depictions of sex and/or violence. Adults Only products are not intended to be sold or rented to persons under the age of 18.

The Rating Pending (RP) icon may appear in early reviews of soon-to-be-released products. Look for the actual ESRB rating icon on the game's package, check the ESRB's Web site or call its toll-free phone number for updated rating information.

Grand Theft Auto III
By Rockstar Games

MATURE

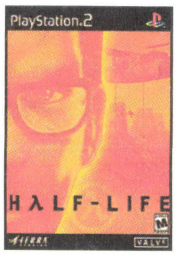
Grand Theft Auto III is definitely geared toward adult gamers with a car-jacking theme and a wide variety of weapons to use in your "profession." The game also has a fair share of blood, gore, and colorful dialogue that's oriented more toward older gamers as almost anything goes while you strive to be a "model" employee in the car theft world.



Half-Life
By Sierra

MATURE

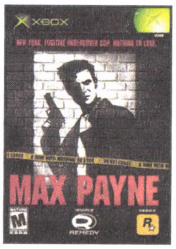
Like most shooters, Half-Life has tons of animated violence that's not suitable for anyone under 17 years old. There's a lot of shooting using both realistic and fantasy weapons, a huge amount of blood, and some intense life-like situations that a younger audience may not fully comprehend.



Max Payne
By Rockstar Games

MATURE

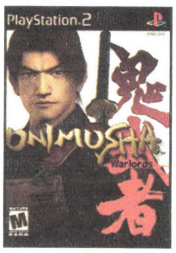
Max Payne features insane violence with bullets and blood flying everywhere. It also glorifies solving problems through violence and deals with drug references and the intense psychological trauma of losing loved ones. In addition, the game includes disturbing subject matter that could freak out younger gamers.



Onimusha: Warlords
By Capcom

MATURE

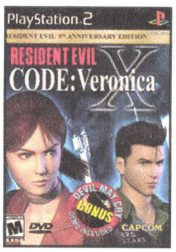
Onimusha: Warlords features a strong amount of blood and gore as players must dispatch a variety of disgusting monsters with exotic weapons. Violence is the only Mature-rated element in Warlords, however, as the game does not contain foul language or sexual content.



Resident Evil Code: Veronica X
By Capcom

MATURE

Resident Evil Code: Veronica X has a substantial quantity of blood and gore. Most of the plasma spilled, however, is that of your adversaries, who consist of monsters and other unreal creatures. Nevertheless, this Resident Evil outing, like its predecessor titles, would be very scary for the younger or more impressionable gamers. This also applies to the Dreamcast version of the game.



Silent Hill 2
By Konami

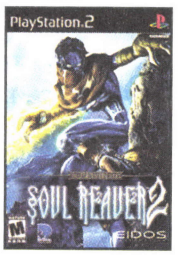
MATURE

The kind of game that breeds weeks of nightmares, Silent Hill 2 earns every letter of its ESRB Mature rating. This game is more twisted, dark, intense, realistic, and downright disturbing than most R-rated horror movies these days as it's filled with lots of blood, indescribably gruesome creatures, graphic murders, and bizarre sexual themes. Don't let children anywhere near this one.

Soul Reaver 2
By Eidos

MATURE

You play a rotting, undead vampire/demon anti-hero who impales his enemies on spiked poles and then sucks out their souls to regain health—so expect lots of brutal violence, gore, and gallons of blood. There's tons of dialogue, but only a few moments involve the use of even marginally offensive language.



State of Emergency
By Rockstar Games

MATURE

State of Emergency earns a solid Mature rating with its offbeat theme and vivid depiction of inner-city riots. The game features a hefty share of onscreen blood and violence as you must utilize a variety of exotic weapons in order to achieve various goals and objectives. Various mission objectives and dialogue also feature occasional profanity.

Note: Some box art may not display final ESRB ratings.

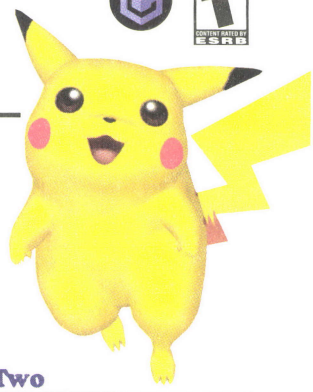
Super Smash Bros. Melee



Secrets of the Smash: Here's how to unlock all 11 hidden characters—and as many hidden stages—in the popular GameCube slugfest.

Hidden Characters

Super Smash Bros. Melee features 14 original characters and 11 hidden ones, for a grand total of 25. Several of the hidden characters can be unlocked in multiple ways—but here are the sure-fire methods to add them to your pantheon.

Keep in mind that once you fulfill the requirements, you'll still have to fight the character in a medium-difficulty one-on-one duel before it's yours, so be sure to use a character you're pretty proficient with before attempting to unlock these characters. And feel free to keep the difficulty set to Very Easy—no one will be the wiser.

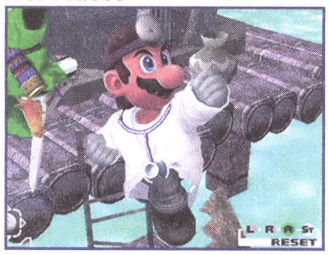
Jigglypuff

Jigglypuff is the first character you'll probably unlock. Simply beat the Classic or Adventure Mode once with any character on any difficulty setting and he's yours.

Marth

Ahh, good ol'...Marth. You know... Marth—from Fire Emblem. Just play at least one VS. match with each of the original 14 characters, and this indigo swordsman will appear.

Dr. Mario



The Doctor is in the house. Beat Classic Mode as Mario without dying and he's yours. Symptoms: All the same moves as Mario. Diagnosis: Fun.

Young Link

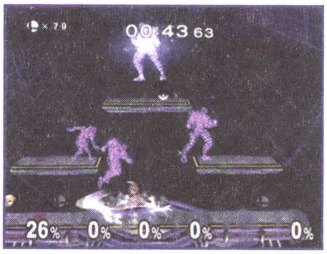
Beat Classic Mode with 10 different characters to open up this youthful clone of regular ol' Link.

Ganondorf

Unlock the insidious Ganondorf by defeating him in Event Match 29: Triforce Gathering. His moves are identical to those of Captain Falcon, although he's a bit slower.

Falco Lombardi

In order to unlock Star Fox's surly compatriot, you have to beat the 100-Man Melee.



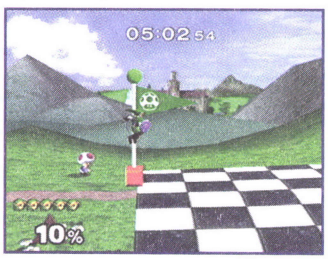
The easiest way is to choose Link and just use his regular (↑ A) attack. Or, if you're feeling really cheap, just use Donkey Kong to slam the floor (↓ B) until everyone's dead.

Roy

Ahh, good ol'...Roy. You know... Roy—from Fire Emblem. He's basically a Marth clone. Beat him as Marth in Classic Mode without dying and he's yours.

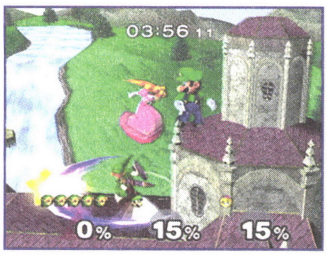
Luigi

While Luigi shares some moves in common with Mario, he definitely has a personality of his own this time.



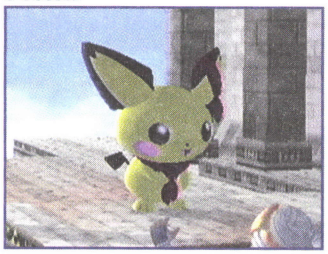
To get him, play as any character in Adventure Mode. At the end of the first stage, jump over the pole just as the timer's fourth digit shows the number 2. (05:02.54 or 08:32.35, for example).

A short movie will play showing Luigi stepping on Mario's head...

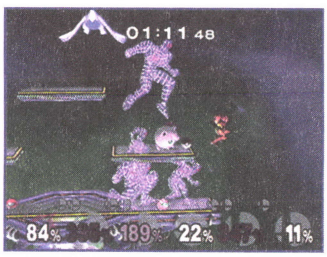


...and then you'll fight against Luigi and Princess Peach atop the Princess's castle. Win the battle, then beat Adventure Mode, and Luigi is yours.

Pichu

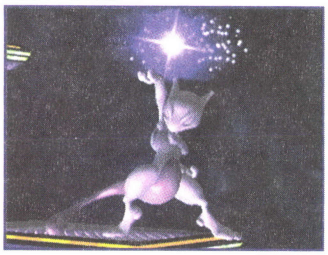


This scarily adorable thing is, not surprisingly, a Pikachu clone. Beat Event Match 37: Legendary Pokémon to add him/her/it to your Pokédex.



In Event Match 37, forget about straightforward fighting tactics. Instead, make it your top priority to grab the Poké Balls before Jigglypuff does or else all is lost. Choose Samus and Screw Attack (↑ B) incessantly to cut through the crowd and make it to the Poké Balls first.

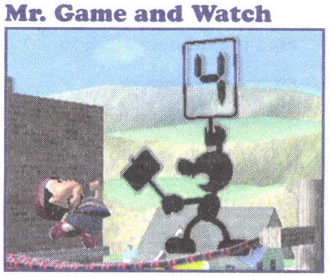
MewTwo



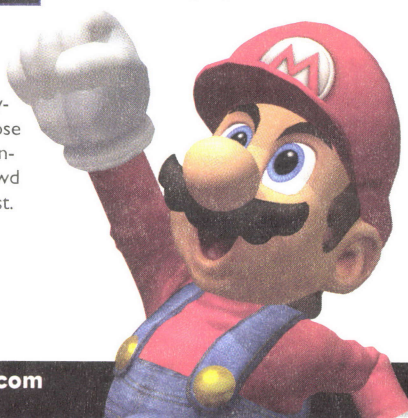
The "easiest" (note the quotes) way to unlock MewTwo is to clock a total "Combined VS. Play Time" of 20 hours. Check the Data → Melee Records → Misc. Records menu to see where you stand. Plug in four controllers, set the battle type to Stock instead of Time, set all four characters as human, and select a level that doesn't have any random obstacles, like Hyrule Temple.

Then just let your game sit there for five hours. Go out to dinner and a movie, come back, and you've "earned" yourself a MewTwo.

Mr. Game and Watch



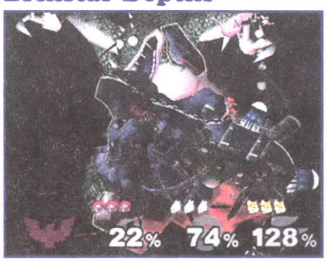
This LCD blast from the past is the last character you'll get. Beat Classic Mode with all 24 other characters, and you can behold Mr. Game and Watch in all his poorly-animated monochrome glory!



Hidden Stages

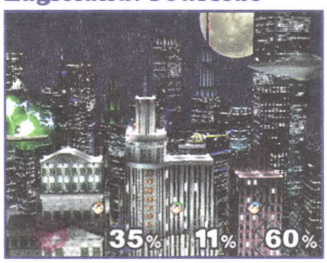
Think 11 hidden characters is a lot? How about 11 hidden stages, most of which are a pain in the ass and not particularly worth the effort!

Planet Zebes: Brinstar Depths



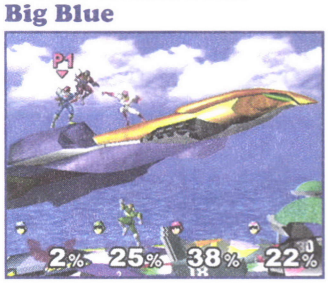
Play 50 VS. Mode matches to open this Metroid-themed level. Every time Kraid comes around and swipes his claw, the level will rotate 90 degrees.

Eagleland: Fourside



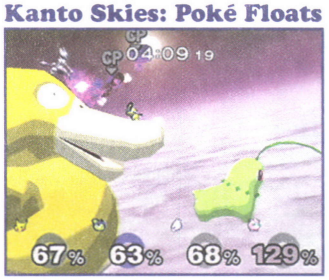
Play 100 VS. Mode matches to open up Fourside, the alien-plagued metropolis from Earthbound.

F-Zero Grand Prix: Big Blue



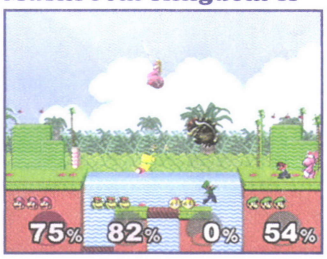
Play 150 VS. Mode matches to open up Big Blue, a level where a high-speed F-Zero Race will be underway.

Kanto Skies: Poké Floats



Play 200 VS. Mode matches to open the super-surreal Poké Floats level where you fight on top of countless Pokémon balloon-things in the middle of the stratosphere.

Mushroom Kingdom II



Ah, scenic Subcon, the land of dreams, the 8-bit realm of King Wart. To open this Super Mario Brothers 2 flashback, get the Birdo Trophy one way or another. You may come across it randomly or, if you have lots of extra coins, try the Lottery.

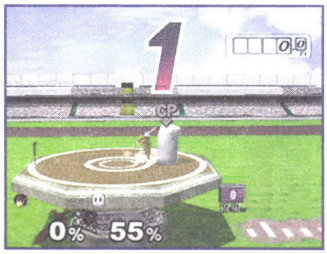
Past Stage: Kongo Jungle

You've got to beat the 15-Minute Melee with any character in order to get this stage. Unfortunately, 15 minutes is a lot longer than it sounds—especially when you've only got one life and any tiny mishap could send you careening to your doom. It's easily one of the most patience-trying tasks in the game.

So, when style and skill won't suffice... do it with Donkey Kong! Stand just under one of the two lower platforms, as shown above, to avoid as many wayward exploding items as possible, and slam the floor (hold ↓ and tap B repeatedly) for 15 minutes straight. The only things you really need to watch out for are items that the wire-frame enemies may throw.

Past Stage: Yoshi's Island

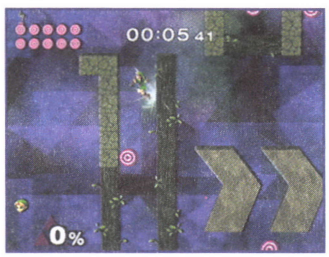
In Home Run Derby Mode, smack Mr. Sandbag over 1300 feet with any character and you'll earn this blast from Yoshi's past.



The easiest way is to pick Roy. Don't even bother picking up the bat. As soon as the timer starts, attack Mr. Sandbag with a Smash Attack (↑ A). As Mr. Sandbag hovers in the air, charge up another Smash Attack (↑ A) and release it before he hits the ground. Repeat once more, for a total of three times. Mr. Sandbag's damage should now be over 50%. As Mr. Sandbag is dropping after the third time, charge B to its absolute fullest (it's OK if Mr. Sandbag lands now) and wait for it to automatically release. Try it a few times, you'll get it.

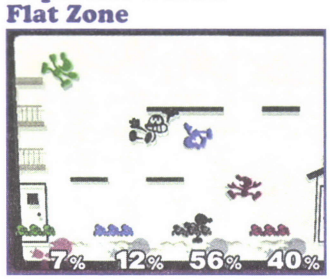
Past Stage: Dream Land

You can't get this Kirby throwback until you've earned all 25 characters. Once that's done, you must then beat the Target Test with every character, being sure to win each one in less than two minutes. If you beat a character's Target Test when you played it as a Classic Mode bonus level, then don't worry about beating it again—that already counts!



The Target Tests for the original 14 characters are pretty straightforward; the ones for the 11 hidden characters, however, are a pain in the ass, designed so you'll have to utilize all your special moves and techniques in really "creative" ways. Some characters (like Young Link) can leap back and forth against walls—an invaluable tool to help you get up narrow vertical passageways.

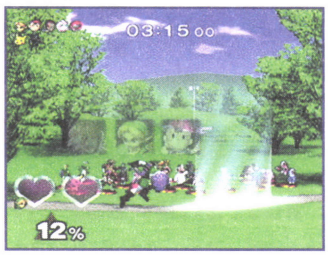
Superflat World: Flat Zone



If you beat Classic Mode with Mr. Game and Watch under any difficulty mode then you'll get this bizarre digital watch face level—it's water resistant up to 50 meters.

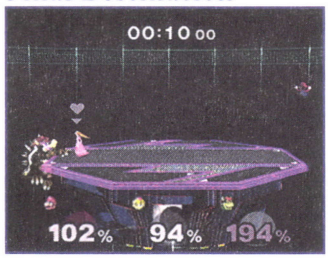
Battlefield

To open up the Battlefield, first open up All-Star Mode by beating Classic Mode with all characters—hidden ones included—except Mr. Game and Watch. Now all you have to do is beat All-Star Mode once on any difficulty level.



In All-Star Mode, you'll fight every single character from the game using only one life. In between matches, you'll return to a central "hub" with some health-restoring heart containers. Save them for when you really need them, since that's your entire supply for the whole game!

Final Destination



No platforms. No obstacles. No Devon Sawa psychically predicting airplane crashes. Just you, your friends, a flat plane, and a trippy background. Beat all 51 Event Matches and the Final Destination is yours.

Other Smashing Stuff

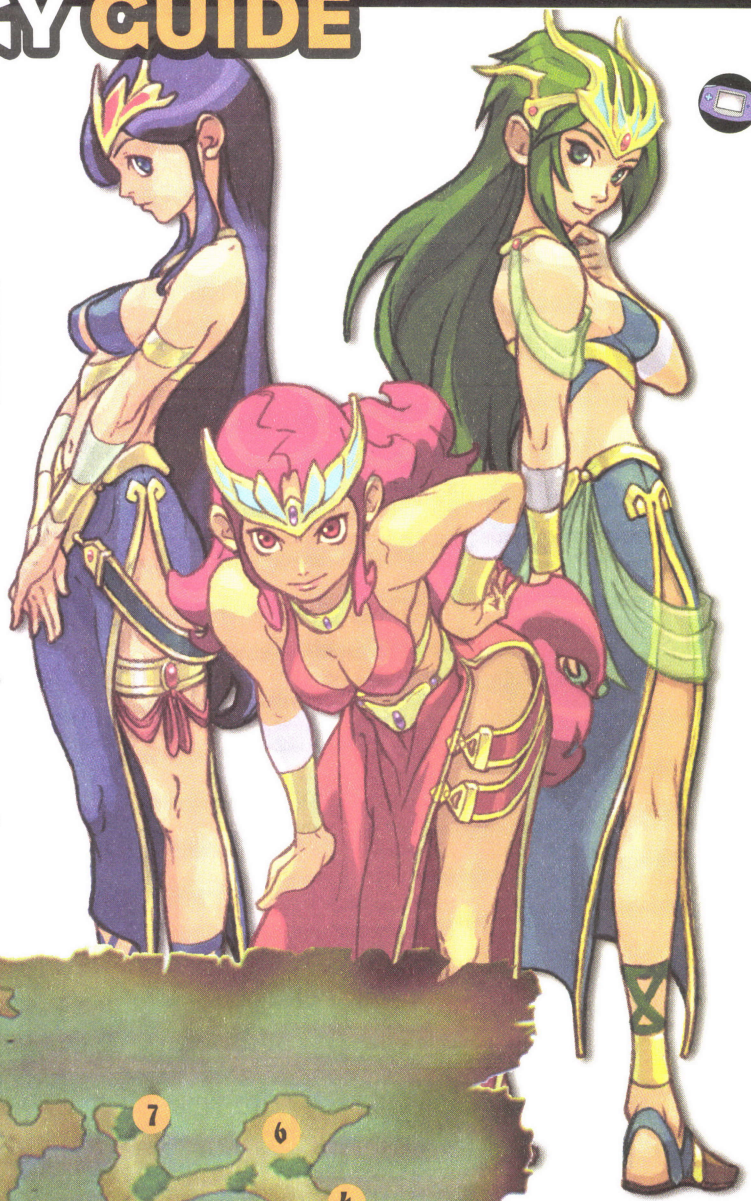
Pikmin Trophy

Insert a memory card with a Pikmin game saved on it, and suddenly you'll have a Pikmin trophy in your collection.

Random Character Select

Ever wonder why there's no random select button on the character screen? There is... it's just hiding. Point your cursor at the little empty space in either lower corner of the character grid and tap A. GV

Breath of Fire II



The second Breath of Fire adventure has hit the Game Boy Advance. In this ProStrategy Guide, we take you through the entire game and show you how to reach the alternate endings.

The Game Starts

First, get the TreePole from the chest. You must talk to everyone in the village before you can go to the mountain in back.

When you return to the village, enter the church. There you meet Bow, who joins you. Leave the village and go northwest to the cave. In the cave, you fight Barubary.

Ten Years Later

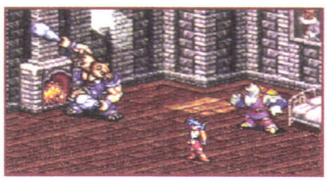
You and Bow are looking for work at the Ranger Guild in Home Town. You're given the task of retrieving Mina's pet, Suzy. Leave the village and travel southeast to Mt. Fubi. Your first big fight is at the top against three harpies. Inside the cave, get the Fire Rock.

When you leave the mountain range, travel west until you reach the small ghost town named Ruins. Enter the town and find the old man, Niro, cowering from cockroaches. Fight the cockroaches. In addition to saving the old man, you also rescue Suzy, who is Niro's intended dinner.

Return to the Ranger Guild at Home Town and get a reward for rescuing Suzy. Later that night, Bow gets a job from a villager, Kilgore, but ends up framed instead. Leave the house, talk to Kilgore, and return to the house. Talk to Bow. Take Bow back to Ruins and leave him with Niro.

Go to Coursair

In Coursair, enter the Pub at night, and talk to Rand at the end of the bar. Leave the town, go to Tag Woods in the north, and fight Baba. Make the fight quick by using the Fire Rock. Get Baba's axe, return to Coursair, and talk to Rand. Now you fight Katt in the arena.



After the fight, Rand joins the group. Go back into the arena and fight Augus. After defeating Augus, return to the Inn, where Katt joins your party. Return to Ruins where Rand and Bow continue to repair the house.

Home Town

Go back to Home Town, and you can now enter the Magic School. Go to the top floor and find Nina. Her sister has been kidnapped by the Joker Gang—and the ransom is Nina. Their hideout is a cave south of Coursair (over the bridge) and to the west.

Joker is in the main cave with Nina, Mina, and his henchmen. You fight several Hoods first, then Joker. Joker is really a demon in disguise, however. After the battle, Nina joins your party.

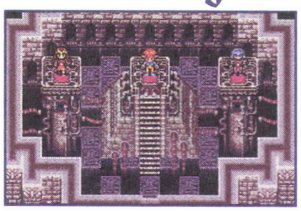
Windia is west of Tag Woods, across a long bridge. After navigating the maze, you get kicked out of the castle. Outside the main gate is a magic show. The magician is Sten, who joins your party. Use Sten to cross areas where cliffs are close together.

Capitan and Ruins

Go west until you reach Capitan. Go down into the well and free the villagers with the help of Ray from St. Eva Church. After rescuing the villagers, return to Ruins with Ray.

From Ruins, go back to Capitan and find Sana, the Fire Shaman (see sidebar, "Soul Joining." You are then transported to a magician's house north of Capitan, where a magician unlocks your Dragon powers. Go back to Ruins so Sana and the magician can set up a lab for experiments. Return to Capitan and select a carpenter. The look of Ruins depends on the carpenter you select (just look at the house that the carpenter inhabits).

Soul Joining



When you find all the Shamans, these combinations will meet with "Great Success." Other successful combinations are possible, but these are the most powerful.

Bow:	Devil	+	Holy
Jean:	Holy	+	Water
	Holy	+	Wind
Katt:	Devil	+	Fire
	Devil	+	Water
	Devil	+	Wind
Nina:	Holy	+	Wind
Rand:	Earth	+	Fire
	Earth	+	Holy
	Earth	+	Water
Spar:	Devil	+	Fire
	Earth	+	Holy
	Earth	+	Water
	Water	+	Devil
	Water	+	Holy
	Water	+	Wind
Sten:	Fire	+	Wind

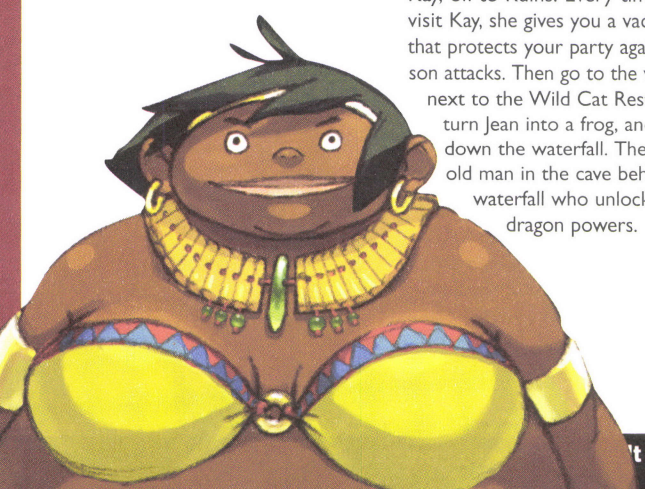
Cross the Water

From Capitan, you can now take the boat across the water to the woods in the west. Meet Jean in the woods, then go west to Witch Tower. Have Nina lead when exploring the Tower. Defeat Nimufu, and she tells you how to change Jean into normal form. Before leaving, find Seso the Water Shaman, who is a prisoner in the Tower.

Before returning to the woods, go west to the small cave by the waterfall and fight the cook of Wild Cat Restaurant. Go to the woods, change Jean into his normal form, and he joins the group. Use Jean to swim to Sima Fort in the middle of the lake. When you come to after being pushed in the lake, get the Deluxe Pole from the chest in the corner.

Jean

Although he is a weak fighter, Jean's ability to turn into a frog not only lets him swim in lakes, but makes him travel faster. He can also jump small hills and gaps.



Return to Witch Tower

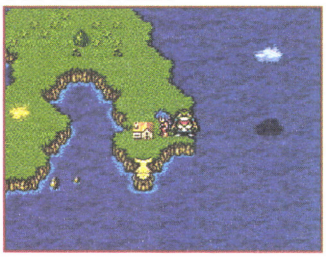
After visiting Jean in the dungeon, return to Witch Tower. Then go to the Wild Cat Restaurant and get the Royal Ring from Nimufu. Return to Sima Fort. After defeating Kuwadora, get the thief, Patty, out of the cage in the kitchen and return to Home Town. Take Patty to Trout's house, then go back to Ruins and get Bow. Take Bow to Kilgore's house in Home Town.

Go to the basement of Trout's house, defeat the demon, and release Patty. Then return to the Ranger Guild. There you hear about a strange occurrence in a town called Gate involving the demon you fought at the beginning of the game. Time to find the Grass Man....

Dragon Powers

From Home Town go to Coursair with Jean. Enter the church and go to the top floor. Send the tenant, Kay, off to Ruins. Every time you visit Kay, she gives you a vaccination that protects your party against poison attacks. Then go to the waterfall next to the Wild Cat Restaurant, turn Jean into a frog, and swim down the waterfall. There's an old man in the cave behind the waterfall who unlocks more dragon powers.

Get the Whale



From the waterfall, go southeast to Whale Cave. Go down into the cave and defeat Munmar, who is making the whale sleep. Get the Whale Bell from the old man in the cave that is on the beach to the west of the Whale Cave. Now you can travel by sea using the whale.

Get Bleu

Go back to Ruins and go down into the well. Then go to Guntz and get the engineer, Eichichi, from the main building behind the bookcase. Send Eichichi to Ruins. From Guntz, go to the carnival at Tunlan and talk to the chief.

From Tunlan, go by whale to the desert in the southeast and talk to the spirits at the oasis. Then return to Home Town and go to the Magic School.

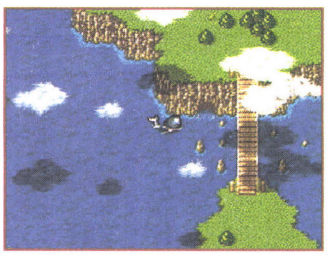
On the second floor in the last row of the classroom is Bleu. Talk to her, and she joins the party.

Bleu, the Sorceress

The veteran sorceress from the first game returns. Bleu has powerful magic spells, and her Shed ability enables her to restore health without using spells or potions.

Spar Joins

Go to the Hunter's cabin east of Capitan and enter the woods in back. Fight Algernon, then collect the Owl Flower. Ride the whale to the sea cave south of Coursair and catch a Uparupa.

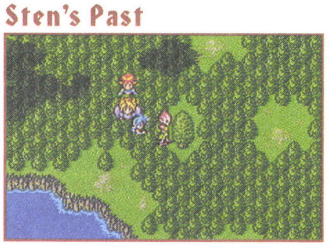


Return to Tunlan and fight M.C. Tusk at the carnival. At the end of the battle, Spar, the Grass Man, joins the party.

Spar, the Grass Man

When traveling, have Spar lead the party because he can walk through forests. During battle, he can also summon the assistance of nearby plant life. These effects range from nearby trees attacking enemies to restoration of health.

Sten's Past



Once Spar joins your party, go to the Great Wise Tree in the Great Sea of Trees to the west of Tunlan. Then go to Tunlan and talk to the man at the steps. Go to Highfort to the East with Sten. At the castle, Sten breaks from the others and fights his old friend Trubo.

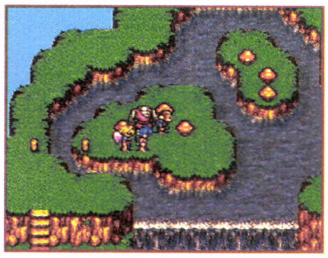
After defeating Trubo, search the castle and find the rest of the party. Fight the sentry door and Shupukay, then retrieve the Magic Flute.

Trouble at Tunlan



Using the Famous Flute, you can talk to the people of Tunlan. Return there and find the Princess in the main castle. The doctor is on the island east of Gate in the first cave on the mountain. Find him and return to Tunlan. Take the letter the doctor gives you to his assistant on the island (make sure you have Sten with you). At the island, talk to the assistant, then climb to the top of the mountain and obtain the mushroom. Return to the assistant. Get the Mirror, return to Tunlan, and fight the demons in the queen's body. Move from room to room and check for monster activity on the Monster Meter. If the Meter is asleep in a room, then that room has been cleaned of all evil.

When you're done cleaning up, get the Therapy Pillow from the treasure room. Now you can enter the mind of the Great Wise Tree.

To enter the Memory Tower, talk to the inhabitants of all three towns, then return to the town you were initially teleported to. Climb to the top of the tower and fight Aruhamel. To leave the Great Wise Tree's mind, talk to the Armory merchant in the town on the hill.

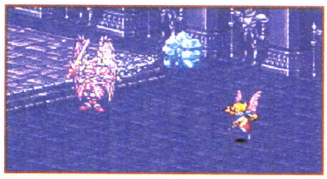
Rand's Quest

After talking to the Great Wise Tree, go south to the fog-filled canyon. Then take the whale and go to Sky Tower. At the tower, find the Wind Shaman, Spoor. Now you can enter the canyon and reach Farm Town. After talking to Rand's mom, Daisy, go to Namada and make a donation. Donate at least 17 times while you're there, then have the worshippers ring the bell.

Return to Farm Town where Rand fights the Paladin.

Nina & Mina

Next stop: Windia. Have Nina lead the party when you enter the castle. Go to the basement and retrieve the Mark of the Wing after fighting the guardian.



After Mina changes into the Great Bird, you can travel anywhere by air.

Mina, Nina's Wings

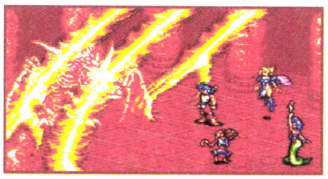
Nina's sister plays a vital role when she turns into the Great Bird. She can fly to islands and other areas that are otherwise inaccessible.

The Resistance

From Windia, travel to Evrai and meet Claris. After escaping the city, go to Cot Land, which is south of Farm Town (Katt must be with you when you enter Cot Land). Talk to Tiga, then go off to the Thieves Tomb, which is southwest of Highfort. Have Nina lead the party in the tomb.

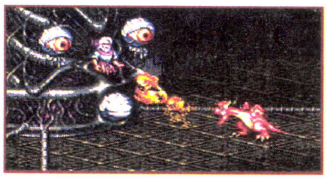
At the tomb, find Patty below and return to Cot Land. Don't bother putting up too much of a fight with Tiga when you come up against him—he cannot be defeated.

The Battle with Ray



Talk to the Wise Tree northwest of Namada. Then go to Namada and donate at least 17 times. Go to Brando, into the basement, and fight Mason. After defeating Mason, go to Home Town and make a donation at the church in order to learn the teachings of St. Eva. Then go to Evrai and meet Tiga. Enter the main church.

Chase Habaruku and fight Ray. During the battle, you receive the Golden Dragon power. At the top of the tower, fight the archers.



After falling to the basement, find the machine and destroy it. Note: If you destroy the machine and the man hooked to it, you will get a different ending than if you destroy only the machine.

Get Pumped Up!

Obviously, the higher your level, the more powerful you are. A great area to kill monsters and load up on experience points is the small island to the northeast of Capitan. To make things easier, fly to Ruins so you can replenish your hit points and change Shaman powers. The island is loaded with gigantic monsters. Remember—once the cave doors have been opened in Gate, Mina can no longer help you travel.

Nearing the End

After you return to Ruins, go down into the well. Have the engineer move the town next to Gate.

Then go back to Farm Town and find the Earth Shaman, Solo.

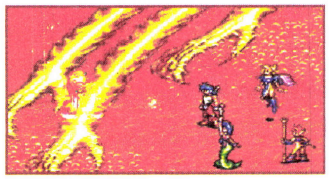
You can also find the Holy Shaman, Seny, in the basement at Brando. Return to Gate and talk to the Wise Tree to the east. Go back to Gate and to the back mountain (make sure you go to the back mountain in daylight). Go to Cot Land, then the Wild Cat Restaurant. From there, go to Ruins and find Patty in a room in the main house.



Go to the back mountain at Gate and fight Babaruku. When you defeat Babaruku, a decision must be made: Do you enter the cave and destroy the demon, or do you wait for him to awaken? If you wait, you will get an immediate ending.

Before entering the mountain, get Shin, the Devil Shaman, located behind the cave door to the left.

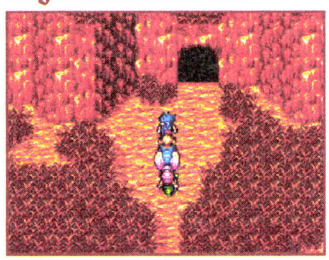
Preparing for The Final Battle

Before entering the cave, go to Tunlan and load up on life and health potions and grab plenty of W. Fruits. Then return to Ruins, pick your party (take Sten with you for the first part), and go to Gate.

Don't merge Sten with the Fire and Wind Shamans—if you do, he won't be able to stretch his arms across the gaps. If you take Nina, be sure to merge her with the Holy and Wind Shamans—her banish spell comes in handy when things get tough.

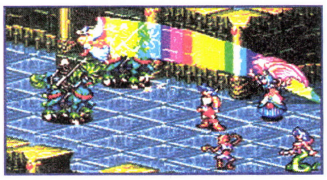
As an aside, when any character is merged with a Shaman, try to keep their hit points above 100. If their HP drop too low, they revert back to normal.

Begin Your Descent



This giant dungeon is divided into two parts. Having Sten with you in the first part enables you to take shortcuts and get certain treasures. Any character merged with a Shaman reverts back to normal when you meet the Wise Men of the Dragon, so choose your party carefully. The dungeon is filled with dead ends that make you travel unnecessary distances (which lead to more battles). Going after the treasure chests in the second sublevel makes you more likely to encounter strong enemies, but there are some powerful items to be found.

The Right Spells



Certain spells can severely damage or outright kill certain enemies. Here are a few for those tense moments:

Monster	Spell
G. Rider:	Fireball or Angel
Humus, Carm:	Angel
DPaladin, Conch:	Death
Dragoon:	Bolt X
Magicmas:	Missile
Skeleton, Racegude, Ganet:	Spells aren't effective; hit only with weapons

The Halfway Point

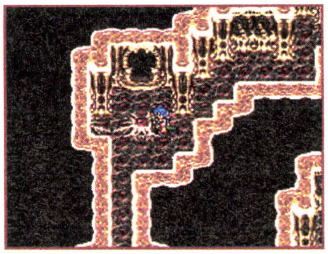
Here you can save your game and buy supplies. There's also a flashback sequence where you control the hero's mother. You'll find a few save points in the caverns ahead, but they're few and far between.

Wise Men of the Dragon

After leaving Dologany, enter the room down the stairs and to the right. Here you can obtain the Anfini power—but only after passing the test.

After entering each room and talking to your friends, refuse to choose one to be sacrificed. Then you get the ultimate dragon power—Anfini.

The Lower Depths



Several treasure chests in these small rooms are worth looking for. There are also a couple of water pools where you can restore your strength and magic abilities.

Defeating Barubary

When you enter a room that's completely dark, power-up all the characters in your party. In this cave is Barubary, the toughest monster in the game.

Barubary attacks with a Bolt X spell, Fire and Cold Breath, and an annoying fire wave that takes at least 100 hit points off every party member. Keep wearing him down with various offensive spells (except Death and Angel) and hit him with a Gold Dragon attack whenever you can. Be warned, though, that the more you damage Barubary, the more powerful he gets.

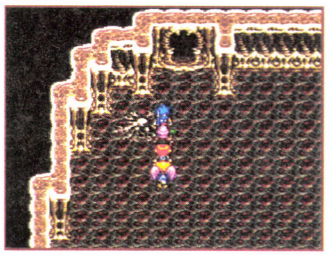
If Bleu is in your party, and you have plenty of Life potions, use her Shed ability to restore her health. Then when Barubary misses an attack, revive your character and feed him W. Fruits until he's powered-up to use the Golden Dragon power. It takes a very long time to defeat Barubary this way, but as a last-ditch tactic, it gets the job done.

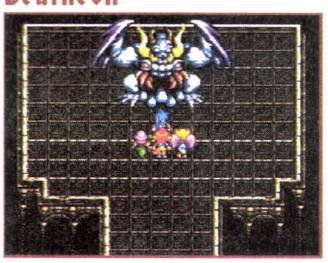
Evan



When you exit the cave after fighting Barubary, you find a save statue, a pool of water, and a red teleport switch. Step on the switch, and you teleport to a big, open room. Walk straight up to the cave.

Inside the cave is Evan. To free yourself from your frozen state, roll your thumb on the directional pad. When you chase Evan to the end of the platform, Deathevn appears. After Deathevn's Explode attack, use the Anfini spell, and your friends join you for the final battle.

Deathevn



Despite his size, Deathevn isn't that hard to beat. Initially he limits himself to small and single person-to-person attacks, but later he takes away your ability to do certain spells and saps your magic and health points.

Deathevn's nastiest attacks are his Death spell and a Bone Laser that damages everyone in the party. While he's easy to fight at first, don't get too confident; a hit from the Bone Laser when your party is in poor shape could mean the end. For attacking, Missile, Fireball, and Bolt X work especially well.

The Endings

There are two endings after you defeat Deathevn. The difference between the two depends on whether Ganer lives. GV

Now you can change your characters' clothes.

Save the game to the memory card. Then start a new game using that data off the memory card. When you check Jill's inventory, there is a new weapon, the all-powerful rocket launcher. This will destroy zombies, Hunters, and other assorted monsters with one shot!

RESIDENT EVIL 2 DUAL SHOCK VERSION

Do the following cheats in the original game and on the Normal skill setting.

Alternate Character Outfits: Start a new game as Leon or Claire, and make it to the precinct without picking up any items. Once in the precinct, load up on ammo and head back outside. Go down the stairs and shoot the zombie Brad—he's tough, so it takes about 20 shots to destroy him. After he's down, search his corpse to find the special key. The key opens one of the lockers in the darkroom with different clothes for Leon and Claire as well as a new pistol for Claire.

Extreme Battle Game: Play through the game twice using the consecutively saved data from each character. After the end credits and the ranking screen of the second game scroll by, a new screen appears that says, "You can play another scenario if you make a new save data." Save the data. Following the "Your Reward" screen is another screen that says, "You can play another scenario if you make a new save data." Save the new data. When you load the data, you can play a hidden mini-game called "4th Survivor." In this mission, you must guide an Umbrella S.W.A.T. member from the sewers to the roof of the police precinct.
